

Student Permission and Release Form

Students' academic works are considered confidential academic records at the University of California; therefore, the student authors must give written consent before such works may be placed on reserve at the UCSB Libraries. A student author may complete and sign this Student Permission and Release Form to give his or her consent to the UCSB Libraries.

By signing this Student Permission and Release Form, the student author is (1) affirming that he or she is the sole author or a coauthor of the works cited below, (2) granting the UCSB Libraries permission to place his or her academic works on reserve and electronic reserve, and (3) releasing the UCSB Libraries from all liabilities resulting from damages or loss that may occur.

Please list the titles (or descriptions) of the works:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

If the works cited above have more than one author, all coauthors must sign this Student Permission and Release Form.

Signature(s):	Print Name(s):	Perm #(s):	Date(s):
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

The student author or any of the coauthors may revoke his or her consent at any time by writing to the Reserve Book Service at the mailing address, email address, or fax number below.

Reserve Book Service
UCSB Libraries
University of California
Santa Barbara, CA 93106-9010
rbs@library.ucsb.edu
Fax: (805) 893-4334