

OPEN ACCESS WEEK EVENTS

OPEN ACCESS WEEK
OCTOBER 22-28, 2012

Tuesday, October 23

4 pm · UCSB Library, 3rd Floor, Mary Cheadle Room

Retain Your Copyright: Archive Your Work

Sherri L. Barnes, Scholarly Communication Coordinator, Humanities
Collection Coordinator

Kristen LaBonte, Biological Sciences Librarian

A key way for scholars to ensure their work is read, studied, and cited by more people is to retain certain rights to their work when signing article publication agreements. This program will demonstrate how to retain your right to reuse your own work.

Wednesday, October 24

4 pm · UCen Lower Level, Harbor Room

Scholarly Communication & Publishing: The Roadmap Ahead

Gene Lucas, Executive Vice Chancellor

Jack Talbott, Associate Vice Chancellor

Researchers and others are invited to discuss open access publishing, changes in scholarly communication, and a roadmap ahead with UCSB leaders Gene Lucas and Jack Talbott.

Monday-Thursday, October 22-25

11:30am-1:30pm · In front of the UCen and Courtyard Cafe

Support open access? Have questions? Come pick up a sticker to wear proudly during the week! Stickers and more information available in front of the UCen and Courtyard Cafe.
