

Innovation, Copyright, and the Academy

THE REINVENTION - OF YOUR - SCHOLARSHIP

Kenneth D. Crews,
Copyright Scholar,
Consultant, and Attorney

Over the past 25 years, Crews has become an international leader in addressing copyright as it relates to the needs of universities, colleges, libraries, museums, publishers, and other cultural organizations. He will speak on reinventing the relationship between university life and copyright law. Crews is an adjunct faculty member at Columbia University Law School and the Munich Intellectual Property Law Center. In 2014 he joined the Los Angeles law firm Gipson Hoffman & Pancione.

Monday, November 2, 4-5:15pm

UCSB Library, Mary Cheadle Room, 3rd Floor

Free admission

UC SANTA BARBARA
LIBRARY
SCHOLARLY COMMUNICATION

www.library.ucsb.edu/scholcomm