Carlton E. Morse Collection

Carlton E. Morse (1901-1993) was one of the most prolific writers in radio. He is best known for his creation of the radio serial One Man's Family, which debuted in 1932 and ran until 1959 as one of the most popular and long-running radio soap operas. Morse also wrote the serial I Love a Mystery and other successful adventure series, he experimented with television and published six novels.

This collection includes scripts for radio and television series, as well as memorabilia on Morse's career (awards, clippings, etc.) and production documents.
