Bill Dana Collection

Bill Dana (1924-), a comedian and actor, may be best known as "José Jiménez" a popular character he created on The Steve Allen Show in the 1950s and continued to perform throughout his career, but he is also a successful screenwriter, author, cartoonist, producer, director, recording artist, inventor and stand-up comedian.

While Dana's own papers are at the American Comedy Archives at Emerson College (Boston, MA), a collection of TV scripts from the Aaron Spelling production company and a smaller number of radio scripts were transferred to the American Radio Archives.
