

UC SANTA BARBARA LIBRARY STUDY AREAS

The UCSB Library has a variety of study areas, including designated quiet spaces, and areas for those who need to work with groups.

General Study Space

UCSB Library has study tables and individual carrels throughout the building. There are study tables and individual carrels on the 2nd floor of the Music Library.

Late Night Study

Late Night Study is available to UCSB students, faculty, and staff with a campus ID. After 2 AM Sunday–Thursday and after 9 PM Friday–Saturday, Late Night Study is offered on the 1st and 2nd Floors of the Library. Use the Paseo West Entrance.

Group Study Areas

Reservable rooms and areas providing collaborative work space for 4 to 10 people are located throughout the UCSB Library. To reserve a space go to www.library.ucsb.edu/services/group-study.

Quiet Floors

Floors 5-8 in UCSB Library are designated quiet floors.

Graduate Study

The Library's three Graduate Study rooms boast study carrels, tables, and armchairs for UCSB's graduate students. The rooms are located on the 2nd Floor of the Ocean and Mountain Side (gain entry by swiping your Access Card), and on the 8th Floor of the Ocean Side of the Library (go to the Services Desk to pick up a key)

Faculty Study

This dedicated space for UCSB Faculty on the 1st Floor Mountain Side of the Library offers a quiet, modern reading room environment with individual, group, and lounge seating options, plus a small enclosed discussion room. Gain entry with your Access Card.

Presentation Practice Room

Reservable room with installed technology to practice, refine, and record oral and multimedia presentations. To reserve the room, go to www.library.ucsb.edu/services/presentation.
