

Hearing the Music Academy of the West

Recording a Community Through the Decades

Derek Katz. (Eric Isaacs)

In honor of the Music Academy of the West's 70th Anniversary, the UC Santa Barbara Library has digitized 400 early and fragile concert recordings from the famous conservatory, including special performances by Marilyn Horne, Jerome Lowenthal, and Lotte Lehmann.

UCSB Associate Professor of Musicology Derek Katz will speak about the partnership between the Music Academy and the UCSB Library to preserve and promote the Academy's archive, and play selections from the digitized collection.

Wed, May 31, 2017, 3:30 PM

UCSB Library Special Research Collections
(3rd Floor, Mountain Side)

Free event: reception to follow

UC SANTA BARBARA
LIBRARY

Co-sponsored by the UCSB Library, the Music Academy of the West, and the UCSB Interdisciplinary Humanities Center

For more information: www.library.ucsb.edu Like us on Facebook

Music Academy of the West/Phil Channing